CHAPTER-1

A. Introduction

Instructions to bidder are broad guidelines to be followed while formulating the bid and its submission to the Purchaser. It also describes the methodology for opening and evaluation of bids and consequent award of contract.

1.1 Eligible Bidders

1.1.1. This Invitation for Bids is open to all suppliers.

1.1.2. Bidders should not be associated, or have been associated in the past, directly or indirectly, with a firm or any of its affiliates which have been engaged by the Purchaser to provide consulting services for the preparation of the design, specifications, and other documents to be used for the procurement of the goods to be purchased under this Invitation of Bids.

1.2 Code of Integrity for Public Procurement

1.2.1. The purchaser requires that the bidders, suppliers and contractors observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. In pursuit of this policy, the following are defined:

Sr. No.	Term	Meaning
(a)	Corrupt practice	The offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything Of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement processor in contract execution.
(b)	Fraudulent practice	A misrepresentation or omission off acts in order to influence a procurement Process or the execution of a contract.
(c)	Collusive practice	Means a scheme or arrangement between two or more bidders, with or Without the knowledge of the purchaser, designed to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive levels.
(d)	Coercive practice	Means harming or threatening to harm, directly or indirectly, persons or theirpropertytoinfluencetheirparticipationintheprocurementprocessoraffectth eexecution of a contract.
(e)	Anti-Competitive practice	Any collusion, bid rigging or anti-competitive arrangement, or any other practice coming under the purview of the Competition Act, 2002, between two or more bidders, with or without the knowledge of the purchaser, that may impair the transparency, fairness and the progress of the procurement process or to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive levels
(f)	Conflict of interest	Participation by a bidding firm or any of its affiliates that are either involved in the consultancy contract to which this procurement is linked; or if they are part of more than one bid in the procurement; or if the bidding firm or their personnel have relationships or financial or business transactions with anyofficialofpurchaserwhoaredirectlyorindirectlyrelatedtotenderorexecution process of contract; or improper use of information obtained by the(prospective)bidder from the purchaser with an intent to gain unfair advantage in the procurement process or for personal gain
(g)	Obstructive practice	Materially impede the purchaser 's investigation into allegations of one or more of the above mentioned prohibited practices either by deliberately destroying, falsifying, altering; or by concealing of evidence material to the investigation; or by making false statements to investigators and/or by threatening, harassing or intimidating any party to prevent it from disclosing its knowledge of matters relevant to the investigation or from pursuing the investigation; or by impeding the purchaser's Entity's rights of auditor access to information

1.2.2. The Purchaser will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Bidder recommended for award has, directly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive or coercive practices in competing for the Contract in question.

1.2.3. The bidders/suppliers should sign a declaration about abiding by the Code of Integrity for Public Procurement and submit it in the form as per Annexure-E along with bid documents. Incase of any transgression of this code, the bidder is not only liable to be removed from the list of registered suppliers, butitwouldbeliableforotherpunitiveactionssuchascancellationofcontracts, banning and blacklisting or action by Competition Commission of India, and soon.

1.2.4. Obligations for Proactive disclosures

- a) The Purchaser as well as bidders, suppliers, contractors and consultants, are obliged under Code of Integrity for Public Procurement to suo moto proactively declare any conflicts of interest (coming under the definition mentioned above – pre-existing or as and as soon as these arise at any stage) in any procurement process or execution of contract. Failure to do so would amount to violation of this code of integrity.
- b) The bidder must declare, whether asked or not in a bid document, any previous transgressions of such a code of integrity with any entity in any country during the last three years or of being debarred by any other Procuring Entity. Failure to do so would amount to violation of this code of integrity.
- e) To encourage voluntary disclosures, such declarations would not mean automatic disqualification for the bidder making such declarations. The declared conflict of interest would be evaluated and mitigation steps, if possible, taken by the purchaser.

1.2.5. Punitive Provisions

Without prejudice to and in addition to the rights of the Purchaser to other penal provisions as per the bid documents or contract, if the Purchaser comes to Conclusion that a (prospective) bidder/supplier, directly or through an agent, has violated this code of integrity in competing for the contract or in executing a contract, the purchaser may take appropriate measures including one or more of the following:

- a) If his bids are under consideration in any procurement:
 - i. For forfeiture or encashment of bid security;
 - ii. Calling off of any pre-contract negotiations; and
 - iii. Rejection and exclusion of the bidder from the procurement process.
- b) If a contract has already been awarded
 - i. Cancellation of the relevant contract and recovery of compensation for loss incurred by the Purchaser;
 - ii. Forfeiture or encashment of any other security or bond relating to the procurement;
 - iii. Recovery of payments including advance payments, if any, made by the purchaser along with interest there on at the prevailing rate.
- e) Provisions in addition to above:
 - i. Removal from the list of registered suppliers and banning/debarment of the bidder from participation in future procurements of the purchaser for a period not less than one year;
 - ii. In case of anti-competitive practices, information for further processing may be filed under a signature of the Joint Secretary level officer, with the Competition Commission of India;
 - iii. Initiation of suitable disciplinary or criminal proceedings against any individual or staff found responsible.

- 1.18.2. Any effort by a Bidder to influence the Purchaser in its decisions on bid evaluation, bid comparison or contract award may result in rejection of the Bidder's bid.

1.19 Post qualification

- 1.19.1. In the absence of pre-qualification, the Purchaser will determine to its satisfaction whether the Bidder that is selected as having submitted the lowest evaluated responsive bid is qualified to perform the contract satisfactorily, in accordance with the criteria listed in ITB Clause.

F. Award of contract

1.20 Negotiations

Normally, there shall not be any negotiation. Negotiations, if at all, shall be an exception and only in the case of items with limited source of supply. Negotiations shall be held with the lowest evaluated responsive e-bidder. Counter offers tantamount to negotiations, shall be treated at par with negotiations.

1.21 Award Criteria

Subject to ITB Clauses above, the Purchaser will award the contract to the successful Bidder whose bid has been determined to be substantially responsive and has been determined to be the lowest evaluated bid, provided further that the Bidder is determined to be qualified to perform the contract satisfactorily.

1.22 Purchaser's right to vary Quantities at Time of Award or later

The Purchaser reserves the right to increase or decrease the quantity of the required goods up to 25% (Twenty-Five) per cent at any time, without any change in rate or other terms and conditions of the Purchase Order, till final delivery date (or the extended delivery date of the contract), by giving reasonable notice even though the quantity ordered initially has been supplied in full before the last date of the delivery period (or the extended delivery period).

1.23 Purchaser's right to accept any Bid and to reject any or all Bids

The Purchaser reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids at any time prior to award of Contract, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Bidder or Bidders.

1.24 Notification of Award

- 1.24.1. Prior to the expiration of the period of bid validity, the Purchaser will notify the successful bidder in writing by registered letter or by cable or telex or fax or e mail that the bid has been accepted and a separate purchase order shall follow through post.

1.25 Signing of Contract

- 1.25.1. The Purchaser shall send the successful Bidder the Purchase Order.

1.26 Order Acceptance

- 1.26.1. The successful bidder should submit Order acceptance within 14 days from the date of issue of Purchase Order, failing which it shall be presumed that the vendor is not interested and his bid security is liable to be forfeited.

- 1.26.2. The order confirmation must be received within 14 days. However, the Purchaser has the powers to extend the time frame for submission of order confirmation beyond the original date. Even after extension of time, if the order confirmation is not received, the contract is liable to be cancelled provided that the purchaser, on being satisfied that it is not a case of cartelization and the integrity of the procurement process has been maintained, may, for cogent reasons, offer the next successful bidder an opportunity to match the financial bid of the first successful bidder, and if the offer is accepted, award the contract to the next successful bidder at the price bid of the first successful bidder.
